

women in business

Heather Hunsaker, owner

La Villa Salon & Spa

149 N. 1200 East State Street, Lehi · (801) 766-2300 · www.lavillasalon.com

Simply put, La Villa Salon and Spa is a place to escape your every day. Whether you're busy with family or feeling stress from the workplace, Lehi's most exquisite salon is prepared to help you take a relaxing time out for yourself.

"Life is moving at such a fast pace, and you never know what tomorrow will bring," says Heather Hunsaker, La Villa's owner. "People need to take time out and enjoy themselves."

Heather says she sees many local women who selflessly put themselves last and deserve to be pampered.

"You're such a better mom, better friend, better person when you take care of you," she says.

Heather knows this first hand — her four children (Ashley, 10, Cayden, 7, Emma, 5, Bree, 3) are her first priority, and life is busy as a full-time mother and business owner.

"Being a business owner is hard — it's really hard," she says. "But it's worth it, especially being on my own as a mom to four kids. I'm so grateful for the salon, and I have to thank my kids for their love and understanding — they really are giving a lot. There needs to be a focus on taking time out for relationships — to stop and enjoy the company and just pamper yourself."

La Villa Salon and Spa has an extensive menu of services to help you take care of yourself and your relationships. For soothing relaxation try a hot stone massage or paraffin spa facial. For a happy pick-me-up try the popular glitter toes or a make-up lesson and application. If you need time away with a spouse, family member or group of friends, go for one of La Villa's indulgent party packages.

If you haven't visited this Lehi gem just yet, stop in for $10 off your first service. Let La Villa Salon and Spa bring out the inner you as you find a way to escape your every day.

business tip

GIVE FEEDBACK

Stylists or technicians love to hear your feedback on the services they provide. Be patient with someone new to you. It may take a couple of times for you and the technician to learn your hair type, cowlicks, texture and style. We love positive feedback and corrective criticism — we are here to serve you. A happy client is what we want. Without you, the client, we cannot succeed. Plus, word of mouth is the best advertisement.